The law school is holding a Bar Admissions information session on September 21, 2016. A representative from the California State Bar will review the California bar admissions process and answer questions.

Registration with the Committee of Bar Examiners | 1st Year Students

Students must register with the California Committee of Bar Examiners as a law student. You likely did this during the first 90 days of our first year of law school. If you did not, you can still register, but you will be charged a late registration fee. Students can register on-line through the California Bar web site, www.calbar.ca.gov.

When	Within 90 days of starting first year
Cost	$119

Application for the Determination of Moral Character | 2nd Yr & within 90 days of Fingerprinting

A positive moral character determination is a prerequisite to being admitted to the bar and practicing law in California. The filing of the moral character application begins the process of character investigation which generally takes eight to ten months, but could possibly take longer. You must register as a law student with the Committee of Bar Examiners prior to submitting the application.

When	Now. (Most students file during their 2 nd year of law school. The committee recommends that applicants file at least 8-10 months prior to date you expect to practice law).
Cost	$551
Website:	http://www.calbarxap.com/Applications/CalBar/California_Bar_Moral_Character/default.asp

Note: The Application for the Determination of Moral Character must be filed within 90 days of obtaining Live Scan Fingerprinting otherwise the fingerprinting will be considered invalid. Please be aware that the vendor conducting the fingerprinting only retains the records for 90 days.

Live Scan Fingerprinting: | 2nd/3rd year & within 90 days of filing for Determination of Moral Character

The California Bar also requires that all applicants to the practice of law be fingerprinted. Applicants are required to submit fingerprints through the Live Scan system with the application for Moral Character Determination.

When	TBD – Mid October
Cost	$21 (at USF) Payable via cash, check or money order
	Per the vendor's request, students must reserve an appointment time online.

The examination application will ask for your student ID number in place of your social security number. This is the 8 digit number issued to you by the University of San Francisco when you were first admitted to the law school, otherwise known as the USF ID Number (or CWID number). This number appears on the following documents which you have received: program notices, exam number emails, and official transcripts. Please note that this number is not printed on your university issued ID card (OneCard). If you do not have a record of this ID number you may obtain it from myUSF by clicking on the link in the “Login” box and following the instructions. You may also obtain the USFID from the Law Registrar’s office, in person only, during normal business hours. Presentation of a photo ID is required.

☐ Laptop Certification: | By applicable deadline

If you plan to use a computer for the essay portion of the exam you must apply for laptop certification. There are a number of steps that you will have to follow in order to register with the exam software.

Testing Accommodations for the Bar Examination: | 2nd year, or ASAP by last year (3rd or 4th)

Students who have received examination accommodations while attending law school must petition the Committee of Bar Examiners to receive accommodations for the Bar Examination. Students may petition the Bar any time after having registered with the Bar, and the Committee of Bar Examiners strongly encourages students to file their second year or the beginning of their third year and no later than three months prior to the exam that you wish to take. Petitions generally take anywhere from 30 days to six months to review and approve, and may take longer if additional documentation is required. The application for accommodations must be received no later than the final filing deadline for testing accommodation petitions, although earlier filing is STRONGLY encouraged.

When Now, if applicable. (2nd year is strongly encouraged but no later than three months prior to the exam that you wish to take).
