<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Core Curriculum Goals</th>
<th>Learning Outcomes</th>
<th>Examples of Measurement</th>
<th>Examples of Evidence</th>
<th>Faculty Follow-up Plans</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Students should understand the nature of society and the relationships between individuals and groups. Students should understand and value cultural and ethnic differences in a multicultural society and globalizing world. | Demonstrate a basic understanding of the literary, historical, social, or cultural influences that inform literary works, including diversity of perspectives, experiences, and traditions. | Exams
One page summaries
Discussions
Quizzes
Written homework
Oral presentation
Reflection | Grades                                                                                                                                  | More syllabus specificity
Balance perspectives
Re-evaluate lectures
Add recent literature book                                                                                   |
| Students should be able to speak and write effectively. Students should be able to express ideas in an articulate and persuasive way.                                                                                   | Articulate in writing and discussion their responses to literary texts with a view to equipping them with the knowledge, values, and sensitivity to succeed as persons and professionals. | Research paper
Discussions
Quizzes
Written homework
Writing sample
Oral presentation
Reflection | Grades                                                                                                                                  | Select new venues
Integrate interactive exercises
Increase quizzes
More group work                                                                                   |
| Students should understand the process of seeking truth and disseminating knowledge.                                                                                                                                   | Demonstrate a basic critical ability to identify, interpret, and evaluate the ideas and formal features of an integrated body of literary texts in the context of a socially responsible learning community of high quality scholarship and academic rigor. | Exams
Research paper
Discussions
Quizzes
Written homework
Oral presentation
Activities
Group oral presentation | Grades                                                                                                                                  | Student discussion questions
Focus on building basic skills
Increase study sessions
Increase quizzes                                                                                   |
| Students should understand the moral dimension of every significant human choice, taking seriously how and who we choose to be in the world.                                                                        | Show a sensitivity to the plurality of meanings within a literary text, including the moral implications of human choices. | Research papers
Discussions
Quizzes
Written homework
Exams | Grades                                                                                                                                  | Add rough drafts of paper                                                                                   |