SUMMARY OF POSITION:
The Student Activities and Leadership Coordinator (SALC) will be responsible for supporting and shadowing the work of the Senior Director of Student Engagement in the creation and management of student activities/events on campus, and also in helping to develop leadership training workshops and programs that will serve to educate and guide the various student groups, clubs, and organizations within the university community. This internship requires the individual to support the collaboration of students and faculty/staff colleagues in the development and implementation of programs, activities, and events that supplement engaged student learning and provide for social interaction and memorable experiences.

The SALC position is a ten-month live-in internship within the Division of Student Life requiring 20 hours per week (additional hours may be required in the weeks preceding and following semester start/finish dates). As part of the Student Life Staff and as a live-in internship, the SALC will also be required to participate in campus-wide duty coverage within the Department of Residence Life.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Under the supervision of the Dean of Students and Senior Director of Student Engagement, the SALC will be responsible for tasks as outlined in this form, but is also encouraged to share any special interests in which the Intern may wish to pursue, as these can be integrated into the assignments. We are seeking individuals committed to serving students and who would like to explore the various aspects of working in student services.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Providing general advisement for ASDU (student government), ICC (Inter-Club Council) and student clubs and organizations

- Assist in the creation of workshop and retreat materials and in-service training for leaders in ASDU, clubs and organizations, and other student leaders on campus.
• Meet regularly with student leaders in support of event planning and management efforts, budget management, meeting facilitation, and conflict resolution.
• Participate in discussions at ASDU General Council, Executive Board, and Senate meetings as well as ICC General Council and leadership meetings.
• Update and maintain information on website.
• Help to manage the Leadership Awards Ceremony in the spring semester.

Assisting with the development and execution of New Student Orientation
• Assist in the training and mentoring of Orientation Leadership team.
• Assist in coordination of Orientation programming.
• Collaboration with campus departments (ie. Admissions, Academic Advising & Achievement Center, Facilities & Events Management Office, and food services) to host Orientation events and in-service training throughout the academic year.

Assisting with programming and support in Residence Life
• Provide support in the training of Resident Advisor staff.
• Assist the Resident Advisor staff in residence hall programming.
• Participate in campus wide on-call duty coverage.

Student Activities & Leadership Departmental/Program Support
• Collaborate with other departments within Student Life, in particular Residence Life and Campus Ministry, as well as with academics, admissions, athletics, alumni and parent programs, and facilities on various projects and special University events such as; Shield Day, Family Weekend, and Commencement, etc.
• Collaborate with Senior Director of Student Engagement, members of Student Life Staff, and other faculty and staff colleagues in the development and support of engaged student learning programming for students.
• Participate in departmental/divisional training and development activities as appropriate.
• Maintain office hours to facilitate student contact.
• Other duties as assigned.

PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES
Outlined by ACPA/NASPA Professional Competency Areas for Student Affairs Practitioners (2015), the primary competency areas that the graduate intern will develop, include:

Advising and Helping: Addresses the knowledge, skills, and attitudes related to providing advising support, direction, feedback, critique, referral, and guidance to individuals and groups. This competency is developed through mentoring and advising student leaders and organizations on campus, and by building rapport with the students.

Student Learning and Development: Addresses the concepts and principles of student development and learning theory. This includes the ability to apply theory to improve and inform student affairs practice, as well as understanding teaching and training theory and practice. This competency is developed through creating, facilitating and evaluating student training and retreat activities.

Human and Organizational Resources: Focused on the knowledge, skills, and attitudes used in the selection, supervision, motivation, and formal evaluation of staff; and the effective application of strategies and techniques associated with financial resources, facilities management, fundraising, technology use, crisis management, risk management, and sustainable resources. This competency is developed through the supervision and evaluation of student leaders and staff, the understanding of conflict resolution strategies and techniques, and event management.

SUPERVISION & MENTORING RECEIVED
The SALC reports to and is supervised by the Senior Director of Student Engagement. There is an expectation that the SALC will communicate regularly with the Senior Director and will meet as needed to discuss department-specific issues. In addition, the SALC will work closely with members of the Student Life Staff and may be asked to partner with staff colleagues on other duties and assignments as needed.
