

School of Education

Grant Agency	Program Synopsis	Deadline
Citizenship, Civil Participation, and Civic Integration in a Pluralistic Society, Carnegie Corporation of New York	Carnegie Corporation's stance on immigrant civic integration stems from Andrew Carnegie's conviction that immigrant integration is essential to American democracy and economic prosperity, and contends that American democracy cannot flourish without fixing the nation's "broken" immigration system.	Letters of Inquiry are accepted on a rolling basis
Educational and Economic Opportunity, Carnegie Corporation of New York	The Urban and Higher Education Program's goals are centered on creating pathways to educational and economic opportunity by generating systemic change across a K-16 continuum, with particular emphasis on secondary and higher education. We work to enable many more students, including historically underserved populations, to achieve academic success.	Letters of Inquiry are accepted on a rolling basis
Educational Opportunity and Scholarship, Ford Foundation	The Ford Foundation focuses on strengthening educational systems to ensure all young people receive an education that enables them to engage in meaningful work and contribute as citizens in diverse societies. They work with organizations that produce compelling new thinking and evidence; promote effective and scalable practices; and communicate, advocate, and build the capacity for reform. Worldwide, they fund initiatives designed to transform the quality of secondary schools and help students from poor or marginalized communities gain access to quality higher education. Requests range from a few thousand to millions of dollars.	Proposals accepted any time
Improving the quality of K-12 education: primary interest in mathematics and science; Toyota Foundation	The Toyota USA Foundation is committed to enhancing the quality of K-12 education by supporting innovative programs and building partnerships with organizations dedicated to improving the teaching and learning of mathematics, science and environmental science. Grants are provided to support the development and implementation of programs that generally range from $50,000 - $200,000	Reviews applications continually
Philosophy in Educational Policy and Practice Initiative, Spencer Foundation	This initiative aims to strengthen work that brings the tools and perspectives of contemporary moral and political philosophy to bear on concrete problems that arise in addressing problems of education practice and policy. The foundation invites scholars to apply for three year "small" grants competition with maximum awards of $40,000 for scholars proposing studies in the philosophy in educational policy and practice.	Proposals accepted any time
Spencer Foundation	The Foundation's research grants are organized under four areas of inquiry that identify broad topics they believe have fundamental and abiding importance for educational improvement: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Education and Social Opportunity</li> <li>- Organizational Learning</li> <li>- Purposes and Values of Education</li> <li>- Teaching, Learning, and Instructional Resources</li> </ul> They also welcome proposals that do not fit one of the four areas listed through their Field-Initiated Proposal program. Small grants are up to $50,000, major grants from $50,000 to $500,000.	Small Grants: Nov 06 & Feb 06 Major Grants: Mar 14
Young Scholars Program, Foundation for Child Development	Supports both basic and policy-relevant research on the development of children in immigrant families from birth to age ten, particularly those who are living in low-income families. Eligible researchers will have earned their doctoral degrees within the last 15 years, and be full-time faculty members. Up to four fellowships of up to $150,000 for use over one to three years will be awarded.	Early November