Course:
LAW 637 – Administrative Law

Professor:
Peter Jan Honigsberg

Course Materials:
Cass, Diver, Beermann & Freeman, Administrative Law: Cases and Materials (7th ed. 2016). Additional readings will be assigned from materials posted on TWEN.

First Assignment:
1. Please read pages 3-49 in the text. The topics to be covered the first week are:
   - Introduction;
   - Legislative Control Over Agencies, including
   - The Nondelegation Doctrine; and
   - The Legislative Veto.

2. Also, please be prepared to answer the following questions:
   - Why is separation of powers a critical part of the study of Admin. Law?
   - What is the nondelegation doctrine and why is it relevant to Admin. Law?
   - Of what importance is the “intelligible principle” to the nondelegation doctrine?
   - What motivated Congress to create a legislative veto, and could it be defensible under a separation of powers argument?
