| Language of Instruction | Courses taught in English and French |
| Application Deadline | Applying to study abroad for a semester is a two-step process. You should plan to apply at the beginning of the Fall semester of your Sophomore year.
1. Students must meet with a Study Abroad Advisor and complete a USF Study Abroad Pre-application for their program of choice and an alternate through the Center for Global Education’s website. Pre-Applications completed by the Dec 1st deadline will be reviewed and students will be notified of their program nomination by the 3rd week of January.
2. Accepted students can then apply for their nominated program. Students are responsible for submitting the host program’s application and required documentation by the program’s deadline. Please note that nomination by USF does not guarantee acceptance by the host program. |
| Program Dates | Spring: January-May
Fall: August-December |
| Program Layout | • Students will explore how Senegalese society has cultivated peaceful coexistence in religiously plural settings.
• In Senegal, students will visit important sites, explore international and regional security institutions, and improve their Wolof or French through courses.
• In Morocco, students will explore religion and politics in Morocco’s unique urban cultures. |
| Course Subjects | Students enroll in a 16-unit course load: Senegal: Colonialism, the State and Society; Research Methods and Ethics; Re-thinking Global Security: Politics and Religious Pluralism in Senegal; French or Wolof language instruction; Independent Study Project OR Internship and Seminar.
