A detailed syllabus will be available before the first class. I plan to give two written assignments. The first will be given approximately halfway through the semester, and the second given several weeks before the end of the semester. Each will require around 12-15 pages. The written assignments will be due in one week, and we will review them in class the week after that. There will be no final.

The final grade will be based on:
First Writing Assignment  approx. 35%
Second Writing Assignment, approx. 40%
Class participation, approx. 25%
