Assignment 1: Tuesday, January 9, 2018

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Professor Luke Boso</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Course</td>
<td>Education Law – Law 730</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Required Text/Reading
- DEREK W. BLACK, EDUCATION LAW: EQUALITY, FAIRNESS, AND REFORM (2013) (hereinafter “casebook”); and
- Supplemental readings posted periodically under the weekly “Modules” tab on the Course Canvas site. These readings will also aggregate throughout the semester and be available under the “Files” tab on the Course Canvas site.

1st Assignment
- Preface: casebook pages 1-15 (ending before problem);
- Casebook pages 17-26 (ending before Brown II);
- Casebook pages 90-105; and
- Pages 1731-44 in the John Boger excerpt, Willful Colorblindness, regarding re-segregation in public schools (on Canvas).

Brief Note to Students
- Prior to the first day of class, please sign up for the Educational Law Canvas site. Good luck with your first batch of readings. I’m looking forward to meeting and seeing everyone on our first day!

Canvas

Accessing Canvas

You can access Canvas via your myUSF account at http://myusf.usfca.edu/ 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Once on the portal page, click on the Canvas button and view your Dashboard to access your course. If you do not see your course on your Dashboard, then click on Courses then All courses to access your course Canvas Shell. Be sure to click on the star next to your course so it can appear in your Dashboard.

Canvas Overview Video

View the Canvas Course Navigation video to get an overview of your Canvas course. Please note that your course may look different from the one in the video but the functionality is the same.
Canvas Student Guides

The Canvas student guides provide instructions on how to submit an assignment, participate in a discussion board and technical requirements. There is also a FAQ list that will answer the most commonly asked questions.

To access the guides go to Canvas Student Guides. If you have trouble logging into Canvas or technical trouble with Canvas be sure to contact the USF ITS Help desk at (415) 422-6668 and let them know you need help with Canvas.