Section 9

Callback

When an employee is called back to work after completing a shift and leaving the premises, the employee shall be paid for the time actually worked upon return for a minimum of four (4) hours, whichever is greater. Callback time, whether worked or not, is considered time worked for purposes of calculating overtime hours.

When a holiday listed in Section 1(A) falls on a Saturday, the preceding Friday or the following Monday shall be observed as the holiday or the University may designate another day to be observed as the holiday.
- B. When a holiday falls on a nonscheduled workday, the first working day following the holiday will be observed as a holiday.
- C. When a day officially designated by the University as a holiday coincides with an employee's scheduled day off, the University shall provide the employee, at the employee's option, either 1) one day off within 2 weeks, or 2) one additional regular day's pay.

Section 3

In order to receive holiday pay, an employee must, unless on vacation, work on his/her last regularly scheduled work day prior to the holiday and on his/her first regularly-scheduled work day following the holiday. In cases of employee absence due to illness, the University may require medical verification prior to the employee receiving holiday pay.

Section 4

Part-time employees as defined in Article 3, shall receive pro rata holiday pay provided the part-time employee was in pay status for at least one half (1/2) the full-time working hours in a month.

Beginning of the tenth (10th) year through the end of the fourteenth (14th) year	Twenty-two (22) days
Beginning of the fifteenth (15th) year and thereafter	Twenty-five (25) days

Section 2

For purposes of vacation leave accrual, continuous employment begins on the employee's initial date of hire into a position eligible to accrue vacation leave. Accrued vacation leave shall be credited to each employee on a semi-monthly basis.

Section 3

An employee must be in pay status for at least one half (1/2) the working hours of a month to accrue vacation leave for that month. Vacation leave does not accrue during any time the employee is receiving long-term disability payments (or during any leave of absence without pay, or for vacation, either paid for or taken during the last day of employment with the University).

Section 4

A full-time employee may accrue vacation leave to a maximum of one and a half (1.5) times the employee's annual accrual rate. A part-time employee may accrue vacation credit to a maximum of two (2) times the part-time employee's pro rata annual vacation rate. Employees who reach a maximum accrual amount may not accrue additional vacation leave until their vacation balance falls below the maximum accrual amount. The University shall notify each employee who is about to reach the maximum accrual within a reasonable period of time prior to the employee's reaching the maximum accrual rate.

Section 5

When a designated holiday falls during an employee's vacation, the employee shall receive an extra day of vacation.

Section 6

Part-time employees shall earn pro rata vacation credit in accordance with the accrual rates listed in Section 1, provided the part-time employee was on pay status for at least one half (1/2) the full-time working hours in that month excluding overtime.

Section 7

Vacations must be scheduled subject to the operational needs of the University. In order to receive consideration for preferred vacation, the employee must submit his/her vacation request in writing to his/her supervisor not less than five (5) working days prior to the start of the requested vacation leave. Scheduling of vacation leave is subject to prior supervisory approval. Conflicts in vacation scheduling will be resolved on the basis of bargaining unit seniority. The University will meet with the membership, upon request after spring commencement, to discuss future vacation requests. The University will try to accommodate vacation requests subject to operational needs. However, the University's decision(s) in regard to vacation approvals shall be final and are not subject to Article 13, Section 7 (Arbitration).

Section 8

Pay for vacation shall be at the employee's straight-time rate. An employee who separates from employment or who is separated from employment shall be paid at the rate in effect at the time for any earned and unused vacation through the employee's last day of work.

ARTICLE 9 – LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Section 1

Except for sick leave and funeral leave, employees shall be employed for one (1) year to be eligible for leaves of absence. Any employee who requests and is granted a leave of absence of more than thirty (30) days will not lose seniority (i.e., will retain seniority already earned but will not accrue additional seniority during the leave). Employees must notify Human Resources of their desire to return to employment within the last five (5) days preceding the expiration of authorized leave. No employee will be allowed a leave of absence so long as the employee has accrued and not used vacation. Employees will not earn fringe benefits during leaves of absence. Employees with five (5) years of service shall be eligible for unpaid Leaves of Absence for up to six (6) months without loss of seniority, subject to the provisions of this Section and the written approval of the University.

Section 2

Bereavement Leave

Non-probationary full-time or part-time employees (twenty (20) hours per week or more) shall be granted three (3) working days off with pay in the event of the death of an immediate family member. However, employees travelling outside of the nine (9) Bay Area Counties (Sonoma, Marin, Contra Costa, Solano, Alameda, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, and Monterey) to attend a funeral may be granted an additional two (2) working days off with pay. The immediate family shall include the following: spouse, registered domestic partner, child sibling, parents, parents-in-law, stepfather, stepmother, legal guardians, grandparents, stepchildren, foster children living in the home, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, grandchildren or any other relative living in the family household. Additional unpaid leave of absence may be requested if necessary and approved by the Vice President. It is the intention of this provision that persons that take such leave shall actually be attending the funeral of the member of the immediate family and/or attending to pre- or post-burial matters.

Section 3

Personal Leave

An employee who has completed one (1) year of employment may be granted five (5) days per year personal leave without pay and without loss of any seniority with the approval of his/her immediate supervisor. The employee must, except in the case of emergency, request such leave seventy-two (72) hours (3 working days) in advance.

Section 4

Family Leave

The University will provide unpaid family care leave to qualified employees as provided by law.

Qualified employees must have completed 12 months of continuous service and be eligible for University benefits. An employee is eligible for family care leave for each of the following circumstances:

- A. Birth of the employee's child;
- B. Adoption or placement of a child with the employee;
- C. "Serious illness" of the employee's child; and

D. “Serious health condition” of the employee’s spouse or parent.

As required by law, leaves for serious health conditions/illness of the employee’s spouse, parent or child must require sustained medical attention in which the employee’s participation in treatment or supervision is warranted and involves either in-patient care in a hospital, hospice or residential health care facility, or continuing treatment or supervision by a health care provider.

Employees are entitled to a total of twelve (12) weeks of family care leave in a twelve (12) month period, which may be taken in interval periods. The University may require or an employee may request that accrued vacation be used as part of the twelve (12) weeks available under this policy.

Family care leave is unpaid, and employees will be entitled to the same health benefits as if they were at work. Employees who request family care leave will be entitled to the same or comparable job upon return to work to the extent required by law. Family care leave will not constitute a break in service for purposes of longevity, seniority or participation in any employee benefit plan.

The University may require an employee to schedule family care leave so as to minimize disruption of the University operations. The University may also require that a request for family care leave be supported by a certificate from a health care provider. Finally, the University may deny family care leave, if necessary, to prevent an undue hardship on the University’s operations.

Section 5

- A. An employee who has exhausted his/her paid leave due to illness, injury, disability, or handicap may request in writing an extended unpaid leave of absence.
- B. The University retains the right to make accommodation decisions necessary to comply with federal law, including the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA).

Section 6

Extended Leave

- A. An employee who has exhausted his/her paid sick leave due to illness or injury shall upon written certification of illness or injury from a medical doctor be granted a leave of absence for a period of up to four (4) months from the date of expiration of paid sick leave with loss of seniority. However, in the event the employee exhausts his/her paid sick leave due to a work-incurred illness or injury, the employee shall, upon certification from a medical doctor, be granted a leave of absence for a period of up to twelve (12) months from the date of expiration of paid sick leave without the loss of seniority.
- B. If the extended leave is for two (2) months or less, the employee shall be granted his/her previous position upon certification by a medical doctor of ability to return to work. If the extended leave is for a period of longer than two (2) months, the employee shall be offered the first available position of comparable status to the one held at the time of illness or injury and upon certification by a medical doctor of ability to return to work.

Section 7

Military Service

The parties shall adhere to federal and state laws governing military service.

Section 8

Eliminated Positions

During the life of this Agreement, should the employee's position be eliminated during a leave of absence, the University shall offer the employee the first available position of comparable status at the expiration of the authorized leave.

Section 9

Comparable Status

As used in this Agreement, comparable status with regard to available or vacant union positions will be determined by criteria including, but not be limited to, the following: skills, abilities, qualifications, knowledge, and competence.

Section 10

Request for Leave of Absence

- A. Requests for leaves of absence, except in cases of sick leave, will be completed in the following manner: the employee shall submit his/her request in writing to his/her immediate supervisor. Such request shall include the reason(s) for the leave, the requested beginning date of the leave and the date of return from the leave.
- B. Response to Request. Following receipt of such leave request, the employee's immediate supervisor shall respond in writing within a reasonable period of time indicating approval, denial, or modification of the employee's original leave of absence request.

Section 11

Leaves of Absence for Union Business

A non-probationary employee may upon request to the University, receive a leave of absence without pay for a period of up to thirty (30) days each calendar year to attend union functions. Only one employee may be on such leave at any one time. The University reserves the right to deny such request based on operational needs as defined by the University. The Union agrees to make such request of leaves one week in advance. The University's decision in regard to denial of such leaves shall be final and are not subject to Article 13, Section 7 (Arbitration).

ARTICLE 10 – SICK LEAVE

Section 1

An employee shall accumulate paid sick leave beginning with the first month of employment and earn on the basis of one (1) day each month worked, accumulated to a maximum of thirty-six (36) days.

Section 2

Sick leave shall be paid commencing with the first day of illness and/or disability. Paid sick leave shall be integrated with voluntary disability or worker's compensation, and only the amount of salary paid by the University shall be charged against the employee's accumulated sick leave. In no event shall an employee receive an amount lesser than his/her applicable wage rate.

Section 3

Prior to receiving an excused absence from work and sick leave pay, the University may require the employee to submit satisfactory documentation of personal or family illness, disability or death prior to receiving an excused absence from work and sick leave pay. When medical documentation is required by the University, it shall be from a health practitioner licensed by the state in which he/she practices to diagnose certified illness or disability or from an authorized representative from a state licensed treatment program.

Section 4

The University may have an employee claiming disability examined by a physician or physicians of its choosing. The University shall pay the reasonable costs of any such medical examination and, when practical, shall send the employee to a physician of its choosing on the employee's work time.

Section 5

Part-time employees as defined in Article 3 shall accumulate pro rata sick leave pay provided the part-time employee is in pay status for at least one half (1/2) of a full-time employee's working hours in the month.

Section 6

An employee's repeated use of sick time may result in loss of sick leave pay if in accordance with this Agreement the University determines that such use is abusive and notifies the employee of its determination in writing.

Section 7

If, while on vacation, an employee becomes ill and is under the care of a physician and submits a physician's statement, the employee may use accumulated sick leave for that illness instead of vacation time. Sick leave may not be used for illness of a family member during the employee's vacation.

Section 8

- A. An employee, who on December 31, 1988, and on each December 31 thereafter has a sick leave balance of thirty-six (36) days or two hundred eighty-eight (288) hours, shall be paid for the value of one half (1/2) of the unused sick leave that would have been accumulated during the preceding twelve months in excess of thirty-six (36) days or two hundred eighty-eight (288) hours except for the thirty-six (36) days/two hundred eighty-eight (288) hours maximum accumulation provided above.
- B. Said payment, which shall be on or before the payroll check for the first payroll period after February 1, 1989 and the payroll check for the first payroll period following February 1 of each year thereafter, shall be based upon the straight-time hourly rate of pay in effect on December 31, 1988 and each December 31 thereafter.

ARTICLE 11 – SENIORITY

Section 1

Seniority means length of service in pay status in either equivalent hours or months. All time spent in non-pay status shall apply toward seniority.

Section 2

Probationary Period

- A. Employees shall complete a probationary period of one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days at one half (1/2) time or more without a break in service. Time on leave of absence with or without pay constitutes a break in service for calculating the completion of the probationary period. Probationary employees returning after a break in service must commence a new probationary period. The University retains the right to extend an employee's probationary period for a period of time not to exceed thirty (30) additional calendar days. The University shall notify the employee in writing at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the effective date of any extension of the probationary period and specify the length of such extension.
- B. Probationary period employees may not be promoted during their probationary period.
- C. The University may release a probationary employee without cause at any time and for any reason. Such release is at the sole discretion of the University and is not subject to Article 13, Grievance Procedure.
- D. Prior to the completion of the probationary period, the employee's supervisor shall complete a Probationary Performance Review Evaluation Form evaluating the employee's job performance during this period. The supervisor shall review the evaluation with the employee. Both the supervisor and the employee shall sign and date the form. A copy of the form shall be given to the employee.

- E. The University will ordinarily complete a Probationary Performance Review Evaluation Form prior to completion of the probation and prior to extending probation. The University shall notify the Union if it is unable to complete such evaluation in a timely manner.
- F. The seniority for a probationary employee who successfully completes the probationary period shall commence on the employee's initial date of hire to full-time or part-time position.
- G. Non-probationary full-time and part-time employees shall be evaluated at least once annually on a schedule and in a manner determined by the University. At the time of the evaluation, the supervisor shall meet with the employee to review the employee's job performance. The supervisor shall complete a performance review evaluation form. At the time of the evaluation, the employee shall be given a copy of the evaluation form. Both the supervisor and the employee shall sign and date the form. ARTICLE 12 – LAYOFF AND RECALL

Section 2

Employees selected for layoff within the employee's classification, will be in inverse order of seniority providing the residual employees possess the skills, knowledge, abilities, and qualifications to perform the work of the remaining positions. Employees shall displace an employee in the same classification on the basis of seniority and provided the employee is qualified to perform the available work.

Section 3

Section 4

Step One

The grievant, with or without the assistance of his/her Union representative, shall file the grievance with his/her employee's immediate supervisor within twenty (20) working days from the date the employee knew or should have known of the alleged violation(s) of this Agreement. Such meeting shall take place within five (5) working days following receipt of the grievance by the Assistant Vice President for Facilities Management. A copy of the grievance shall also be filed with the Director of Employee and Labor Relations. The Assistant Vice President for Facilities Management shall issue a written answer to the grievance within five (5) working days of the date the resolution meeting took place. One copy of the answer shall be sent to the employee's Union representative and one copy filed with the Director of Employee and Labor Relations. In the event the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 1, the employee or his/her Union representative may appeal the grievance to Step 2. The Board of Adjustment may not usurp the authority of the University. The Board of Adjustment may not amend contract language or University policy.
7. The decision of the Board of Adjustment shall be final and binding upon the parties if; a) the Board of Adjustment does not violate its authority pursuant to (5) above and, b) a majority of the Board of Adjustment agree with the written decision of the Board of Adjustment. A vote of the four individuals who serve on the board shall be required for a final decision. The vote shall be summarized in writing.
8. The Board of Adjustment may conduct an investigation which shall be confidential. However, all members of the Board of Adjustment must be in agreement that an investigation be made. Deliberations of the Board of Adjustment shall be confidential.
9. Should the Board of Adjustment not reach a final decision within thirty (30) days (and the grievance timeliness not be formally extended), the grievance shall be considered null and void unless appealed by the union, within twenty (20) days, to arbitration as set forth in this agreement.

Section 6
