

PERUVIAN STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES
causa Limeña, Tamales Criollos, Causa De Pollo

Limeña, or Lima-style causa, was first made in colonial period and is normally served cold as a first course or as a light meal. The word causa comes from Quechua word kausay, which means 'life' or 'tenance of life'. Tamales Criollos is one of the traditional dishes of Peruvian cuisine, widely served for Sunday breakfast. The tamale is moist, slightly spicy, and absorbs an exotic flavor provided by the banana leaf wrapping.

INDIAN STUDENT ORGANIZATION
Samosas

authentic Indian food present at every Indian event, samosas are triangular shaped vegetarian snack consisting of peas and potatoes.

JAPANESE STUDENT ASSOCIATION
Chirashi Sushi, Japanese Green Tea, Miso Soup, Okashi

We make Chirashi Sushi for celebrations as well as at home as a popular family dish. This well-known Japanese food has an older history than what we know as "sushi" in America. Chirashi Sushi is a mix of rice, different fish, vegetables and egg.

EL SALVADORIAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION
Quesadillas, Maduros, Arroz con Pollo

Quesadillas are an everyday dish from El Salvador. Maduros and Arroz con Pollo are common to Latin American countries.

ISLAMIC STUDENT ASSOCIATION
Kebabs, Couscous, Dates

Kebab is a lamb meat dish deep fried or barbecued in a sauteed sauce. Couscous is a deeply mixed Moroccan bean dish sprinkled with lime and spices. Dates, a sweet dish first began in Saudi Arabia, became so famous that it traveled all along the

ANIMATION, COMICS, & VIDEO GAMES CLUB

ERASMUS

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

CULTURESCAPE & ISA

Culturescape is the annual signature event of USF's International Student Association (ISA). Planned, hosted, and presented by USF international and domestic students, Culturescape is a festival of food, performances, and exhibits from around the world. This signature event is an opportunity for student organizations, student-led groups or individuals to educate the USF community about world cultures.

The International Student Association promotes cultural education, advocates for the USF international student body, and provides a social community by being the voice of the international students, creating social interactions, and developing educational opportunities for cultural enrichment.

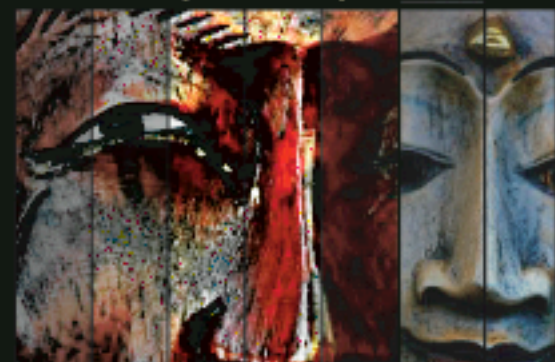

All interested individuals are welcome to join ISA. Contact us at isa@usfca.edu.

ISA would like to thank all the organizations and participants who made this event possible!

CULTURESCAPE
2008

THE WORLD UNVEILED
an evening of cultural performance and celebration

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21

6:00-8:00PM

PRESENTATION THEATER &

MCLAREN COMPLEX

UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO

USF UNIVERSITY CHOIR

Fauré's "Cantique de Jean Racine"

Written at age 19 by the Romantic era French composer Gabriel Fauré.

HINDI FILM DANCE TEAM

Hindi Film Dance

This routine combines classical Hindi Film dance with a little bit of modern and hip-hop thrown into the mix. All the choreography is taught by students, using new and old styles along with cultural backgrounds for inspiration.

CHINESE STUDENTS AND SCHOLARS ASSOCIATION

Zheng Solo "Fight Against the Typhoon"

Zheng is a traditional stringed Chinese musical instrument with a long history and beautiful sound.

USF KASAMAHAN

Sakuting

Provincial dance portraying a mock fight using sticks to train for combat. The dance is traditionally performed during Christmas at the town plaza or from house to house.

DARIO GONZALEZ

Latin America Trip Medley

Three songs -- "Alfonsina y el mar", an Argentinian zamba, and "Es tan lindo quererte", a traditional Paraguayan song -- express the power and beauty of Latin American cultures. As you listen to these songs, you can feel the melancholy of the bohemian people

LAMBDA THETA NU SORORITY INC.

Stepping

The sisters of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority first introduced stepping to the ladies of Lambda Theta Nu by inviting them to step on stage in a unity step. Normally performed with machetes, the dance exemplifies the determination of Latinas to integrate into every aspect of life that was not traditionally meant for Latinas.

LU WEI (AQUA) XIE LIN QIU WEN YI YANG ARE "CHINA KINT"

Tong Nian

The name of this Chinese Pop song "Tong Nian" (童年) translates to "childhood" in English. Composed by Da You Luo who represents first generation of pop music in China this is one of the most famous songs from the early 1980s. The song describes many special childhood scenes.

USF HAWAIIAN ENSEMBLE

Ke Kai

This type of Hawaiian dance is called hula kahiko, which is accompanied by the ipu heke or instrumental gourd and ancient chanting called oli. The song glorifies the ocean of Hawaii nei and all the beauty and resources it provides.

KOREAN STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES

Demonstration of Tae-Kwon-Do

Tae-kwon-do is a traditional martial art in Korea commonly practiced to strengthen the

BLACK STUDENT UNION

Fried Okra and Corn & Dirty Rice

Fried Okra and Corn & Dirty Rice would be consumed during the dinner meal as a side. Fried Okra and Corn come from southern roots, from the homes of American slaves. The roots of Dirty Rice include French, Spanish and Caribbean influences. Dirty Rice is a traditional Cajun dish made from white rice cooked with small pieces of chicken liver.

CHINESE STUDENT & SCHOLARS ASSOCIATION Mooncakes, Noodles, BBQ Pork, Fried Crispy Duck, Mu-Shi Vegetables

Mooncakes, often filled with salted duck egg and lotus seed paste, are traditionally eaten during the Mid-Autumn Festival. Fried Rice is a popular component of Chinese cuisine. Peeking Duck, a famous dish from Beijing, has been prepared since the Yuan Dynasty and is now considered one of China's national foods. Noodles, a popular food for Chinese people, date back to the East Han Dynasty between AD 25 and 220. Mu-shi vegetables is an unusually flavorful combination of spices, vegetables, and corn.

USF HAWAIIAN ENSEMBLE

Haupia

Haupia, a traditional coconut milk based dessert, is served at luaus and other gatherings in Hawaii.

USF KASAMAHAN

Pancit

The word "pancit" was derived from the Chinese Hakkien dialect phrase "pian i sit" meaning "something conveniently cooked fast." Eating pancit is thought to make your life longer.