

Student Agreement of Financial Responsibility

The Student Agreement of Financial Responsibility is provided to inform the student of the financial requirements which accompany registration at the University of San Francisco.

At the time of registration, the student becomes responsible for payment of the charges for educational services, which from time to time may include tuition, student health insurance, housing, meal plans, activity and transportation fees, and other University of San Francisco charges for any and all periods of enrollment at the University of San Francisco.

For complete information regarding payment due dates, payment policies, and refunding, please go to www.usfca.edu/tuition.

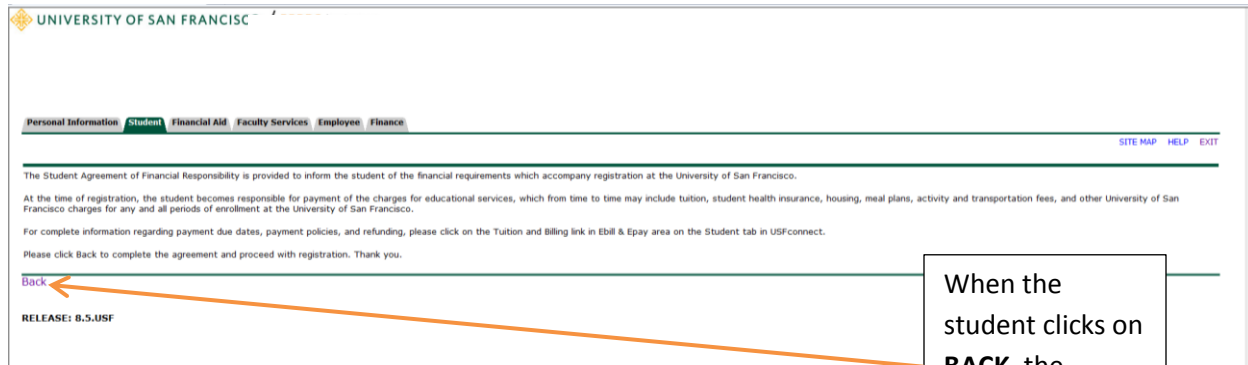

The image displays three sequential screenshots of the University of San Francisco's Student Agreement of Financial Responsibility process, with callouts explaining key steps.

Screenshot 1: Registration Menu
The top navigation bar includes "Personal Information", "Student", "Financial Aid", and "Employee". The "Student" tab is active. The "Registration" section lists several options: "Select Term", "Look Up and Register for Classes", "Drop and Add Classes", "Change Class Options", "Student Schedule", "Detailed Schedule", "Registration Status & Advisor Information", "View Holds", and "Buy Textbooks Online". A callout box points to "Drop and Add Classes" with the text: "When a student initiates registration by selecting Drop and Add Classes in SSB for the first time in each semester, the student must agree to the conditions of the Student Agreement of Financial Responsibility."

Screenshot 2: Student Agreement of Financial Responsibility
The top navigation bar includes "Personal Information", "Student", "Financial Aid", "Faculty Services", "Employee", and "Finance". The "Student" tab is active. The "STUDENT AGREEMENT OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY" section is displayed. Below the title, a paragraph states: "By clicking 'I agree' below, Student indicates responsibility for payment of the charges for educational services, which from time to time may include tuition, student health insurance, housing, meal plans, activity and transportation fees, and other University of San Francisco charges for any and all periods of enrollment at the University of San Francisco." Below this, the "Terms and Conditions" are listed. At the bottom, there are two buttons: "I Agree" and "More information". A callout box points to the "I Agree" button with the text: "When I Agree is clicked, the student is directed to the Confirmation screen and is re-directed to the Registration screen when BACK is clicked."

Screenshot 3: Confirmation Screen
The top navigation bar includes "Personal Information", "Student", "Financial Aid", "Faculty Services", "Employee", and "Finance". The "Student" tab is active. The "Thank you for completing the agreement." message is displayed. Below the message, there is a "Back" link. At the bottom, there is a "RELEASE: 8.5.USF" label. A callout box points to the "Back" link with the text: "When I Agree is clicked, the student is directed to the Confirmation screen and is re-directed to the Registration screen when BACK is clicked."

If the student clicks More Information, the next screen explains that it is a condition of enrollment that the agreement must be completed.

When the student clicks on BACK, the student is returned to the Registration screen.

Again, the student is returned to the agreement so it can be completed prior to registration.
