The amounts that will be reported to you on the Student Loan History Form will reflect the loan proceeds that were disbursed to your USF Student Account. Please note the following:

- Accrued interest and/or pre-payment are not added to or deducted from these amounts.
- For current balances on your loans(s) you must contact your lender.
- In accordance with Federal Title IV record keeping requirements, we keep loan information for a limited period of time. Depending on the time frame for the information you are requesting, the information may no longer be available from the USF financial aid archives and you would need to contact the lender directly for any information.

For the most current and comprehensive information on all of the Federal Student Loans that you have borrowed, please visit the NSLDS web site at: www.nslds.ed.gov
