What you need to know about:

MONKEYPOX

Monkeypox is a rare disease that is part of the family of viruses as smallpox, but its symptoms are milder and is rarely fatal. It is not related to chickenpox!

SYMPTOMS:
- Fever
- Muscle Aches
- Rashes
- Bumps
- Sores

WHAT TO DO:
If exposed follow up with your own healthcare provider for appropriate next steps. Healthcare provider will determine if you have symptoms and ask you to isolate/test for symptoms.

Contact Health Promotion Services to assist with any accommodations.

For more information, scan the QR code:
How does Monkeypox spread?

Through close, personal, often skin-to-skin contact with someone infected.

Touching objects, fabrics (clothing, bedding, or towels), and surfaces that have been used by someone with monkeypox.

Contact with respiratory secretions from someone infected.

For more information, scan the QR code: