

EMPLOYEE NOTICE

UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO is subject to Oregon Employment Department Law

0000001

If you become unemployed or employed less than full time, you may be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits.

However, if you quit work without good cause, get discharged or get suspended for misconduct:

- You will be denied benefits until you have returned to work and,
- In order to requalify you must be separated from the new work for a non-disqualifying reason and,
- Your maximum benefits payable to you will be reduced

For further information on how to file an unemployment insurance claim, please visit:

WorkingInOregon.org.

To the employer, it is required you post this notice in your place of business notifying employees you are registered with the Employment Department.

To obtain this notice in your preferred language, please contact us at: 503-947-1488.

Worksource Oregon Employment Department is an equal opportunity employer/program

