USF School of Law
Spring 2019 – First Assignment

Course:
Property II

Professor:
Alice Kaswan

Course Materials:
John G. Sprankling & Raymond R. Coletta, Property: A Contemporary Approach (4th ed. 2018) [Note: 2nd and 3rd-year day students can use the THIRD edition of the casebook. I have prepared a separate syllabus with assignments to the 3rd edition.]

OR Students may use the 3rd edition. I have prepared syllabi tailored to both the 3rd and 4th editions, both of which are available on the course TWEN site

John G. Sprankling, Understanding Property Law (4th ed. 2017) (Assignments to the supplement will be indicated by “Understanding”)

Clicker – more information is provided in the syllabus

First Assignment:
In the syllabus, prepare sections I(A), I(B)(1) and I(B)(2) (in other words, through the material on marketable title)

Additional Notes:
Whether you are a returning evening Property student or a new student, I look forward to seeing you on January 8!