HOW TO PAY FOR YOUR USF EDUCATION

It’s a life-changing investment, and we’re here to help.

UNIVERSITY OF SAN FRANCISCO
Congratulations on being accepted to the University of San Francisco! We’re excited to welcome you to the Hilltop. But first, we know you and your family need to look closely at what you can afford to pay, and what help is available to make attending USF possible. This is where our Offer of Financial Aid comes in.

The enclosed letter summarizes the aid being offered to you for the 2022–2023 academic year, based on the financial information you provided. It can include merit aid, which we offer at admission to students who show exceptional promise, and federal and state aid, which is based on your family’s estimated need. When there is still a gap in what families need to help cover costs, USF steps in to provide additional financial help.

We know that this amount can’t always cover all of a family’s need, but we do the best we can to help as many students as we can with the financial aid dollars we have available. The bigger picture to keep in mind is that what you invest in a USF degree pays you back in important ways, like boosting your earning power over your career (see the back page for more). This document will guide you through the steps you need to take to accept your financial aid offer and renew it in future years.

We’ll also cover the rights and responsibilities you have as a student receiving financial aid, and the basics of paying your bill. (Find more details at myusf.usfca.edu/financial-aid.) We want to do everything we can to help you and your family make an informed decision, so if you have questions about any part of this process, please contact us. We’re here to help.

HOW AID WORKS

DETERMINING YOUR FINANCIAL NEED

To figure out how much financial aid you’re eligible to receive, we first determine your parents’ ability to contribute to your college costs. We take into consideration the income information reported on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), as well as any other information you provided. When you file your FAFSA, the US Department of Education looks at your family’s income, assets, total number of family members, and the number attending college. They take into account necessary expenses, like reasonable living costs, taxes, and any unusual medical expenses. And they set aside a portion of your family’s assets to account for things like family emergencies and college savings for siblings.

After they calculate what are deemed reasonable contributions from you and your parents, we deduct that “expected family contribution” from your cost of attendance; the difference equals your demonstrated financial need. USF can’t meet 100 percent of every family’s need, but we hope the aid we do offer makes it possible for you to enroll at USF.

SOURCES OF FINANCIAL AID

Your financial aid package may include money from a mix of sources:

1. GIFT AID: This can include federal and state grants (for example, a Pell Grant or Cal Grant) and USF grants, all of which are awarded based on your FAFSA. It can also include merit scholarships that USF awards based on the strength of your admission application. Gift aid does not need to be repaid.

2. STUDENT EMPLOYMENT: Your package may include a Federal Work Study offer. This is part-time employment that pays you directly for hours worked.

3. FEDERAL LOANS: These can include subsidized loans (where the government pays the interest on the loan while you’re enrolled) or unsubsidized loans. The amount you can borrow varies, depending on your family’s financial need, cost of attendance, year in school, and other aid awarded. Visit studentaid.gov for more information and the required forms to complete if you plan to accept your federal loans or apply for a Parent PLUS loan.

4. OUTSIDE SCHOLARSHIPS: Money from private sources—for example, tuition grants from your parents’ employers or scholarships from organizations or clubs—are coordinated with the rest of your USF aid. We use them first to reduce the gap between your financial need and total aid awarded, then to replace any campus employment award. If your private funds exceed both of these amounts, any USF scholarship you had received is reduced by the remaining portion of the outside award.

ESTIMATED COST OF ATTENDANCE FOR 2022–2023

Your financial aid budget is based on an estimated cost of attendance that includes both direct and indirect costs. Direct costs include estimated amounts for tuition, fees, and room and board. Indirect costs consist of estimated amounts for books, personal expenses, and travel. The total cost of attendance is what we work from when determining the amount you and your family will be expected to contribute toward the cost of attending USF.

Tuition, fees, and room and board typically increase each year. Over the last few years, annual increases have ranged from 2 to 4.5 percent. Our estimate of personal expenses includes things like laundry supplies, telephone expenses, and recreation. Cost of attendance may include a $56 loan fee for students who accept federal direct loans.
ACCEPTING YOUR FINANCIAL AID OFFER

Here’s what you need to do next:

- If you haven’t already, accept your admission by taking the required steps to enroll, including sending the required deposit to the Office of Admission.
- Use the myUSF portal to review and accept your financial aid offer online.
- If selected for verification, submit signed copies of your and your parents’ 2020 federal income tax returns, including all schedules, to our Office of Financial Aid. Any differences between the income reported on the tax documents and the information provided on your FAFSA may result in your family’s contribution and aid eligibility being revised.
- If you are accepting federal student loans, complete and submit the Entrance Loan Counseling and Master Promissory Note for Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loans at www.studentaid.gov for timely disbursement.
- Notify our Office of Financial Aid of any anticipated outside scholarships not already included in your aid offer. These would include any privately sponsored outside scholarships or parent employer-sponsored tuition benefits.

COMPLETING APPLICATION/AID REQUIREMENTS

In some instances, “expected aid” doesn’t become “actual aid” until specific documents are completed and submitted to USF or to other grant or lending agencies. These include:

1. Verification: If you are selected by the US Department of Education for verification, the procedures and documents involved must be completed before any federal funds become actual aid. The Office of Financial Aid will guide you through this process.
2. Noncitizens: Students who aren’t US citizens must provide proof of their eligible noncitizen status (for example, an alien registration card or other documents designated by the Office of Financial Aid) before they can receive federal funds.
3. Student employment: If you have student employment, your earnings will be paid to you directly by check or direct deposit. To receive the biweekly paychecks, you’ll submit your hours on time sheets signed by your supervisor.
4. Outside scholarships: USF’s Office of Financial Aid coordinates all of your outside aid awards as part of your overall financial aid package. Before those awards can be released to us, scholarship sponsors will typically require you to verify your registration or GPA. It’s your responsibility to get that proof from USF’s registrar in a timely way.

HOW TO PAY YOUR BILL

The amount your family owes USF is based on the total cost of tuition, fees, and room and board, minus your scholarships, grants, and loans. Families can make two payments, one each semester, or pay in monthly installments through USF’s payment plan, as described below. Your online student account is where you’ll track your bills and payments. When you log in, you’ll see any outside scholarships, grants, and student loans listed on your bill as credits, showing a status of “expected aid” if they haven’t been received by USF. These funds convert to “actual aid” once we’ve received them. (Your work earnings aren’t included as credits on the bill since they’re paid directly to you.)

ADDITIONAL FINANCING OPTIONS

FEDERAL LOANS: Just as students can borrow through the federal Direct Student Loan program, parents can use the federal Parent PLUS Loan program to borrow as much as the total cost of attendance plus loan fees, minus any other financial aid or loans. A master promissory note and a credit check are required. Detailed information on federal loan programs is available at studentaid.gov.

PRIVATE EDUCATIONAL LOANS: We encourage you to exhaust your federal loan options before exploring private loan options. Private loans are credit tested. Students may get more favorable loan terms with a credit-worthy cosigner. Additional information on private loans is available at myusf.usfca.edu/financial-aid/loans/private-loans.

CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT: USF’s Student Employment program is not only a practical way for you to earn money to contribute toward your educational expenses, it also gives you the opportunity to gain valuable work experience, time-management skills, and, in some situations, provide vital support to local nonprofits. The Student Employment Office partners with employers on and off campus to provide a wide range of job opportunities. Visit myusf.usfca.edu/student-employment.

MONTHLY PAYMENTS: USF’s semester payment plan allows families to make their tuition payments in installments. No interest is charged; however, there is a $50-per-semester enrollment fee, as well as penalties for late payments. Payments for fall begin in August and end in November. Spring payments begin in January and end in April. For more information, visit myusf.usfca.edu/billing-tuition.

VETERANS BENEFITS: If you are planning to use veterans’ benefits to help pay for your degree, please contact our Veterans Enrollment Services Center at veterans@usfca.edu.

529 COLLEGE SAVINGS PLANS: USF accepts 529 withdrawals to pay for tuition, books, and other qualified educational expenses.
YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES TO MAINTAIN YOUR AID

ENROLLMENT REQUIREMENT: To be eligible for most financial aid, you must be enrolled at USF at least half-time. To retain your aid, you must maintain satisfactory academic progress (SAP) as defined for federal student aid and as described in USF’s SAP policy. Cal Grant funding is limited to four academic years. In order to graduate in four years, you must complete 16 or more units per semester.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS: Our SAP policy is designed to ensure that you are making adequate progress toward completing your degree program with a goal of graduating in four years. Financial aid recipients must maintain a cumulative 2.0 GPA and successfully complete 67 percent of semester credits enrolled in and attempted. Academic progress is monitored at the end of each spring semester. More detailed information can be found at myusf.usfca.edu/financial-aid/sap.

RECONSIDERATION OF AID

Some students and their families experience unique circumstances that affect their ability to pay their college costs. Families facing severe financial problems due to job loss, death of a parent, or loss of business income should contact the Office of Financial Aid for a review of their financial aid eligibility. You’ll need to provide documentation of your circumstances (for example, a letter of termination from an employer, or tax statements showing reduced personal or business income). A request submitted without documentation will not be reviewed. Visit myusf.usfca.edu/financial-aid/financial-aid-appeals.

RENEWING YOUR AID IN FUTURE YEARS

USF students are required to reapply for financial aid each year. This allows us to assess your family’s financial need based on more current income information. As a result, some forms of aid—like loans and federal or state grants—may increase or decrease each year. Any USF grant aid you have been awarded will in most cases stay constant.
