Tip

Who is a Contributor?

Any individual required to provide consent and approval for federal tax information (FTI) along with their signature on the FAFSA® form, including the student and based on their dependency status the following individuals:

Dependent Student	Independent Student
Biological or adoptive parent; or the parent's spouse (stepparent)	Student's spouse

Who's My FAFSA Parent? Wizard

If you are a dependent student, use the Who's My FAFSA Parent? Wizard to identify which parent(s) will be a required contributor on your form.

The screenshot shows the 'Who counts as a parent on the FAFSA form?' wizard on the Federal Student Aid website. The page has a light blue header with navigation links: 'FAFSA Form', 'Loans and Grants', 'Loan Repayment', 'Loan Forgiveness', 'Log In | Create Account', and a search icon. The main content area has a title 'Who counts as a parent on the FAFSA form?' and an illustration of a person sitting cross-legged with a laptop. Below the title, there is explanatory text: 'A student may need to ask their parent(s) to provide information on their FAFSA form based on the student's dependency status.' and 'This tool helps determine which parent(s) should participate in a student's FAFSA form.' A green tip box states: 'To begin using the tool, enter the first name of the student's legal parent(s). This helps us provide clear direction on which parent(s) should participate in the student's FAFSA form.' Below this, the question 'Who is considered a legal parent?' is followed by two input fields labeled 'First Name (Parent 1)' and 'First Name (Parent 2)'. There is a checkbox labeled 'The student has only one legal parent.' and a blue 'Continue' button. The footer contains links for 'Help Center', 'Contact Us', 'Site Feedback', 'About Us', 'Announcements', 'Data Center', 'Resources', and 'Forms Library', along with the Federal Student Aid logo and social media icons.

Provide Consent and Approval

FAFSA FORM 2026-27 Student Alex Tran

Provide Consent and Approval or You Won't Be Eligible for Federal Student Aid

Summary

Your consent and approval are needed to retrieve and disclose federal tax information. With your consent and approval, we can obtain tax return information automatically from the IRS to help you complete the FAFSA form. If you don't provide consent and approval, you will not be eligible for federal student aid, including grants and loans. You must provide consent and approval even if you didn't file a U.S. federal tax return or any tax return.

- Get your 2024 tax return information for the 2026-27 FAFSA form.
- Federal tax information is used to determine your eligibility for federal student aid.
- Tax return information is required to complete the FAFSA form.

By accepting below, I consent to the disclosure of information about me, and affirmatively approve of

- the receipt and use of my federal tax information, and
- the redisclosure of my federal tax information by the U.S. Department of described herein.

By accepting below, I consent to and affirmatively approve of, as applicable, that

I, ED, may disclose my Social Security number/Individual Taxpayer Identification number, date of birth, unique identifier, the tax year for which federal tax is required, and the date and timestamp of my approval for the use of my federal tax information to determine eligibility for ED for which approval is provided to the U.S. Treasury, Internal Revenue Service (IRS). I understand that in response to ED, the IRS shall then disclose my federal tax information to "authorized, specifically designated officers and employees of ED and its contractors (45 C.F.R. 162.101(k)(1)(ii)) for the purpose of determining eligibility for and the amount of federal student aid under a program authorized under subpart 1 of part A, part C of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, for myself or an eligible aid who has requested that I share my federal tax information on their FAFSA form.

By accepting below, I consent electronically to the use of my StudentAid.gov account username and password (PSA-ID) as my signature and verify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that the foregoing is true and correct. I understand that any falsification of this statement is punishable under the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 1001 by a fine, imprisonment of not more than five years, or both, and that the knowing and willful request for or acquisition of records pertaining to an individual under false pretenses is a criminal offense under the Privacy Act of 1974, subject to a fine of not more than $5,000 fine (5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(3)). By accepting and submitting my part of the FAFSA form, my execution (including date and time) of consent and approval will be logged in ED's Person Authentication Service System of Record (PSA-ID).

Frequently Asked Questions

Who should provide consent and approval?

If I'm married and didn't file a joint tax return with my current spouse, does my spouse have to provide consent and approval for you to access their tax information?

What happens after I provide consent and approval?

What happens if I decline consent and approval?

Select "Approve" to provide consent and approval for the use of your federal tax information to determine your eligibility for federal student aid. If you select "Decline", you will not be eligible for federal student aid.

Previous Decline Approve

The student is asked to provide consent and approval to transfer and use tax information from the IRS to the FAFSA form.

Consent must be provided or approved to be eligible for federal student aid.

IRS Import Information

The results from the IRS import will be displayed after consent is provided.

In this example, there is no federal tax information available from the IRS for this student.

What about...

Student and contributor who don't provide consent and approval

- Student and contributor has two opportunities to provide consent and approval prior to submitting the FAFSA.
- When consent and approval is not provided, a student aid index (SAI) will not be calculated and the student is ineligible for all student aid.
- Warning messages will appear regarding federal student aid ineligibility

Summary

This page confirms that you understand the terms and conditions of the FAFSA[®] form and filled out the form accurately to the best of your ability.

The FAFSA form is a legal document you will electronically sign with your StudentAid.gov account username and password (FSA ID). Because your FSA ID is associated with your personal information, do not share it with anyone.

By signing this application electronically using your FSA ID, YOU, THE STUDENT, certify that you

- will use federal and/or state student aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education,
- are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it,
- do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it,
- will notify your school if you default on a federal student loan, and
- will not receive a Federal Pell Grant from more than one school for the same period of time.

By signing this application electronically using your StudentAid.gov account username and password, you certify that all of the information you provided is true and complete to the best of your knowledge and you agree, if asked, to provide

- information that will verify the accuracy of your completed form, and
- U.S. or foreign income tax forms that you filed or are required to file.

You also certify that you understand that the secretary of education has the authority to verify information reported on your application.

If you sign this application or any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using a username and password, and/or any other credential, you certify that you are the person identified by the username and password, and/or any other credential and have not disclosed that username and password, and/or any other credential to anyone else. If you purposefully give false or misleading information, including applying as an independent student without meeting the unusual circumstances required to qualify for such a status, you may be subject to criminal penalties under 20 U.S.C. 1097, which may include a fine up to $20,000, imprisonment, or both.

Additionally, by signing this application electronically using your FSA ID, you authorize the U.S. Department of Education to disclose all information provided on this application, as required under Section 483(a)(2)(D)(ii) of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, to the institutions you have identified herein, state higher education agencies (in your state of residence and the states in which the institutions identified herein are located), and designated scholarship organizations to assist with the application, award, and administration of federal, state, or institutional financial aid programs and designated scholarship programs. Notwithstanding this authorization, the name of an institution that you select to authorize such disclosure shall not be shared with any other institution.

Contributor: Provide Consent and Approval

FAFSA[®] FORM 2026-27 Parents of Alex Tran Save FAFSA Menu

Provide Consent and Approval or the Student Won't Be Eligible for Federal Student Aid

Summary

Your consent and approval are needed to retrieve and disclose federal tax information. With your consent and approval, we can obtain tax return information automatically from the IRS to help you complete your section of the student's FAFSA[®] form. If you don't provide consent and approval, the student will not be eligible for federal student aid, including grants and loans. You must provide consent and approval even if you didn't file a U.S. federal tax return or any tax return.

- Get your 2024 tax return information for the 2026-27 FAFSA form.
- Federal tax information is used to determine the student's eligibility for federal student aid.
- Tax return information is required to complete the FAFSA form.

By accepting below, I consent to the disclosure of information about me, and affirmatively approve of:

- the receipt and use of my federal tax information, and
- the redisclosure of my federal tax information by the U.S. Department of Education (ED), as described herein.

By accepting below, I consent to and affirmatively approve of, as applicable, the following:

1. ED may disclose my Social Security number/Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, last name, date of birth, unique identifier, the tax year for which federal tax information is required, and the date and timing of my approval for the use of my federal tax information to determine eligibility for ED for which approval is provided to the U.S. Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service (IRS). I understand that in response to such a request from ED, the IRS shall then disclose my federal tax information to "authorized persons" (i.e., specifically designated officers and employees of ED and its contractors (as defined in 26 U.S.C. § 6109D(c)(1)(E)) for the purpose of determining eligibility for and the amount of federal student aid under a program authorized under subpart 1 of part A, part C, or part D of Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, for myself or an applicant for federal student

By accepting below, I consent electronically to the use of my StudentsAid.gov account username and password (PSA ID) as my signature and certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that the foregoing is true and correct. I understand that any falsification of this statement is punishable under the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 1001 by a fine, imprisonment of not more than five years, or both; and that the knowing and willful request for or acquisition of records pertaining to an individual under false pretenses is a criminal offense under the Privacy Act of 1974, subject to a fine of not more than $5,000 fine (5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(3)(3)). By accepting and submitting my part of the FAFSA, my execution (including date and time) of consent and approval will be logged in ED's Person Authentication Service System of Record (18-11-02).

Frequently Asked Questions

Who should provide consent and approval?

If I'm married and didn't file a joint tax return with my current spouse, does my spouse have to provide consent and approval for you to access their tax information?

What happens after I provide consent and approval?

What happens if I decline consent and approval?

Select "Approve" to consent and approve for the use of your federal tax information to determine the student's eligibility for federal student aid. If you select "Decline," the student will not be eligible for federal student aid.

Previous Decline Approve

Contributor must provide their consent and approval. By providing consent, the federal tax information will be transferred directly to the FAFSA from the IRS.

Student will be ineligible for student aid if they do not provide consent.

Demographics Financials Signature

Family Size

Based on answers to previous questions, we've made some assumptions about the parent's family. The student and the student's parent (and parent's spouse, if married) are always included in the family size. The box below shows the parent's family size based on our assumptions and the number of children or other dependents you report.

 The parent's family size is 5.

Parent: 1 Parent Spouse or Partner: 1 Student: 1 Parent's Children and Other Dependents: 2

Enter the number of children or other dependents who live with the parent and will receive more than half of their support from the parent between July 1, 2026, and June 30, 2027.

Include dependent children who meet these criteria, even if they live apart because of college enrollment.

Do not include the student applicant.
