

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In 2012 Fr. Stephen Privett, S.J., founded the USF Council on Jesuit Mission to encourage and support the development of programs that promote the mission, vision and core values of the University, in particular the first goal articulated in the USF 2028 Plan on USF's Jesuit Catholic tradition. We wish to thank our colleagues on the 2012–2013 USF Council on Jesuit Mission who have taken on this challenge, and supported this book project over the past year, advising on the contents, contributors and discussion questions: Paul Bernadicou, S.J., Greg Bonfiglio, S.J., Michele Centrella, Corey Cook, Melissa Dale, Jeff Dillon, S.J., Julia Dowd, Mike Duffy, Donal Godfrey, S.J., James Hanvey, S.J., Tim Iglesias, Steve Katsouros, S.J., John Koeplin, S.J., Tom Lucas, S.J., David Macmillan, Sonny Manuel, S.J., Peter Novak, Vincent Pizzuto, Tracy Seeley and Mary Wardell-Ghirarduzzi.

In addition to the faculty and staff members who wrote personal reflections for chapter 5, we are grateful to those who suggested their favorite prayers, meditations and sacred texts for chapter 4. In particular, thanks to Aaron Hahn Tapper, Aysha Hidayatullah, Donal Godfrey, S.J., Sonny Manuel, S.J., Nina Ragonese '15, and Megha Chawla for contributing to this section.

Much credit is due to Nina Ragonese '15, who carefully gathered, arranged, and edited all of the faculty submissions, articles, and prayers. Thanks to Eugene Vinluan-Pagal and Anne Hogle for their beautiful design work. Thanks to Anneliese Mauch who assisted with project management, and Aaron Riccio, whose careful editing spared us from publishing several embarrassing mistakes. Award-winning photographer Barbara Ries captured the dynamic portraits of our faculty and staff contributors. We were grateful to have the opportunity to work with her on this project. Thank you to Katie DeChants for organizing the photo shoot and overseeing the final production stages, and the University Ministry staff for their support of the book project and creating space for it to come to fruition.

Finally, we wish to thank all of the publications listed below that gave us their permission to reprint articles, prayers and speeches.

CHAPTER 7

Reflection and Discussion Questions

The reflection and discussion questions were collected from a variety of sources including an article entitled, What Do We Mean When We Talk About Social Justice by Noelle Lopez, 2009-10 Hackworth Fellow at the Markkula Center for Applied Ethics, Santa Clara University. The full text of the article appears here: <http://www.scu.edu/ethics/about/students/social-justice.html>. Excerpts reprinted with permission.

Questions 4 and 5 were raised by Bryan Massingale, professor of theology at Marquette University during his lecture titled “Building a Civilization of Love: Leading or Diversity and Inclusion on Jesuit Campuses” at the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities (AJCU) Seminar on Higher Education Leadership in June 2013. Question 5 is taken from Ross, Susan A. (1999) “The Jesuits and Women: Reflections on the 34th General Congregation’s Statement on Women in Church and Civil Society,” Conversations on Jesuit Higher Education: Vol. 16, Article 5.

The full text is available at: <http://epublications.marquette.edu/conversations/vol16/iss1/5>.

Other reflection questions came from Characteristics of Jesuit Universities, a document developed by the AJCU in 2012.
