REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

Disability justice is reproductive justice

1.3 BILLION PEOPLE WORLDWIDE HAVE SIGNIFICANT DISABILITY.

80% OF PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES ARE SEXUALLY ASSAULTED MORE THAN ONCE

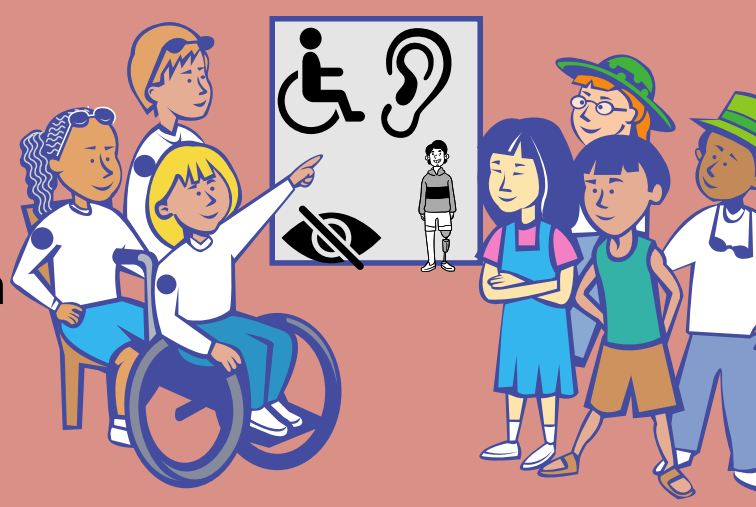
40% OF DEATHS OF PEOPLE WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITIES MAY HAVE BEEN PREVENTABLE TO GOOD QUALITY HEALTHCARE

YOU

- Know your sexual and reproductive rights.
- Report any violation of you rights.
- Participate in your medical decisions, learn more about shared decision-making here.
- Take Charge - a reproductive health guide for women with disabilities.

PROVIDERS

- Aim to provide culturally competent and inclusive care with shared decision making and patient agency.
- Increase reproductive health education and training.
- Ensure availability of skilled healthcare in the workforce.
- Address barriers to covering and funding reproductive health care.

ALL OF US


- Be inclusive, celebrate diversity, and stand against discrimination
- Report if you witness abuse, violence, discrimination or neglect in people with disabilities.
- Advocate for Sexual Reproductive Health Education
- Vote and lobby for policies and laws that support bodily autonomy and reproductive justice.