

Week 1: August 29 - September 2, 2022

Ethan Lee-Bellows - President

- President Lee-Bellows responded to a student's inquiry regarding the follow-through of the Suicide Prevention Hotline and Domestic Violence Hotline Resolution
- President Lee-Bellows is collaborating with Kahanu Salavea exploring ideas to expand the food pantry
- President Lee-Bellows met with Father Fitzgerald for his first monthly meeting
- Senator Rosario is currently brainstorming ways to outreach to her constituency group, pre-medicine students.
- Senator Yniguez is currently brainstorming initiatives on a google doc to better advocate for his constituency group, hispanic students.
- Senator Johal is currently brainstorming ways to outreach to her constituency group, senior students.

Ariana Anayat - VP of Internal Affairs

- Anayat has been working on making connections and collaborating with other campus partners, such as the Culturally-Focused Clubs Council, whose executive team attended the recent General Senate Meeting.
- Anayat has been working hard on sorting through the new influx of applications for Senator and especially committee positions.
- Anayat has been productive in preparing for the weeks to come.
- Senator Gorozhankin has been working on a NightCaps initiative.
- Senator Wang and Senator Del Puerto are pursuing a collaboration with the USF Food Pantry.

Fiza Shaikh - VP of Advocacy

- Shaikh has been working on recruiting members for the Advocacy Committee and building the committee.
- Shaikh had her first committee meeting on September 1st and laid out the structure for the Advocacy Committee this year.
- Shaikh also designated committee roles to better run the Advocacy Committee.
- Senator Smagulova is working on reaching out to her constituents.
- Senator Smagulova has created a google form to get an idea about her constituents needs.

Nadine Tabucao - VP of Finance

- ASUSF VPF Tabucao approved line item change requests for the following Chartered Student Organizations: Campus Activities Board, Support Services, and USFTv.
- ASUSF VPF Tabucao partially approved fall appeal request from the SF Foghorn.
- ASUSF VPF Tabucao approved a $135 funding request from Business Analytics Club for their Fall Mixer event.
- Senator Seth has been communicating with UBAC members to finalize scheduling and goal setting.
- Senator Teruya has been brainstorming ways to outreach her constituents and may take up past resolutions that have not yet been implemented.
- The Finance Committee anticipates a presentation from the International Student Association regarding their Internal Development and Travel Funding requests.

Jasleen Dhillon - VP of Marketing & Communications

- Dhillon has been working on fostering relationships with other organizations on campus through social media.
- Dhillon has also been promoting amazing opportunities open to the entire student body, such as joining ASUSF committees.
- Dhillon has also been promoting Dons elections and open positions on ASUSF Senate.
- The ASUSF Marketing and Communications Committee reviewed how the committee will look throughout the year.
- The committee also established committee chairs to help establish roles within the committee.
- Senator Quan is working on receiving updates for her constituency concerning modified foreign language classes that accommodate students with learning disabilities.
- Senator Lopez has been brainstorming a brief questionnaire for the freshman class.
- Senator Glancy is collaborating with a fellow senator, Dmitry Gorozhankin, on a Night Caps initiative.