

Week 2: September 5 - September 9, 2022

Ethan Lee-Bellows - President

- President Lee-Bellows is conducting outreach to ensure student representatives are established on various university committees and working groups.
- President Lee-Bellows is preparing to deliver his report to the Board of Trustees.
- The ASUSF executive committee is meeting with Coach Jackson of the USF Basketball Team to brainstorm future collaborations with the ASUSF Senate
- Senator Rosario is sending out emails introducing herself, her goals, and her availability with the pre-medicine organizations on campus.
- Senator Yniguez is continuing his work on establishing a hispanic group similar to BASE on campus.
- Senator Johal is sending her Kirpan resolution to the advocacy committee next week.

Ariana Anayat - Vice President of Internal Affairs

- Anayat attended the Involvement Fair on Tuesday and helped lead a meet-and-greet session for Freshmen students interested in ASUSF Senate on Wednesday
- Anayat also presented to the General Senate about recent past resolutions to provide information and inspiration to the Senators as well as other students who chose to attend the weekly General Senate Meeting.
- Anayat is reaching out to campus partners looking for collaboration opportunities for Senators as well as future speakers for General Senate Meetings.
- Additionally, Anayat is continuing to sort through the influx of new applicants.
- The ASUSF Internal Affairs Committee interviewed two new applicants this week: one for At-Large Pre-Law Representative, and the other for School of Nursing and Health Professions Representative.
- The committee will be voting next week.
- Senator Gorozhankin is pursuing a Night Caps Initiative, and presented at the General Senate Meeting this week about his plan and pricing breakdown.
- Senator Wang is beginning work on her initiative to start a donation-based thrift store on campus.
- Senator del Puerto is conducting research on food pantry systems at other institutions and is beginning outreach with the USF Food Pantry in order to foster a collaboration.

Jasleen Dhillon - Vice President of Marketing and Communications

- Dhillon has worked towards fostering relationships with other organizations on campus through social media.

- She has been making efforts to promote open opportunities on campus and promoting dons elections.
- The ASUSF Marketing and communications committee was canceled last week due to Labor day.
- Senator Quan is working towards receiving updates for her constituency as well as educating her constituency about their rights to accommodations
- Senator Lopez has been communicating with a few organizations about a cultural clubs involvement fair.
- Senator Glancy is collaborating with a fellow senator, Dmitry, on a Night Caps initiative.
- Senator Glancy is also working on a new initiative.

Fiza Shaikh - Vice President of Advocacy

- Shaikh is working on finding a guest speaker for the next committee meeting on September 19, 2022.
- A potential guest speaker will be someone from USF votes, possibly Forrest from committee.
- Shaikh is also working on getting connected with Richard Hsu and establishing connections with organizations that have to do with sustainability.
- Shaikh is also working on recruiting more members for a fuller committee.
- The Advocacy committee went over the Resolutions 101 presentation, got to know each other, figured out how to add members to slack, and lastly, discussed potential guest speakers for the committee
- Senator Smagulova met with a representative from the International Student Association who connected her to Anson, president of ISA.
- Senator Smagulova has created a google form for international students to get an idea of their needs and changes they would like to see on campus, and will send it out some time next week.
- Senator Smagulova also had a meeting with Marcella Johana and one of her representatives from the International Student Scholar Association (ISSA).
- Shaikh will cancel the advocacy committee this week due to a time change of the committee which will be in KA 209 on Mondays from 3-4 pm.

Nadine Tabucao - Vice President of Finance

- ASUSF VPF Tabucao denied an event funding request from the Environmental Engineering and Science Club.
- The ASUSF Finance Committee has not heard any funding requests.
- Senator Teruya is following up on the Suicide Prevention Hotline & Domestic Violence Hotline Resolutions