

Week 5: September 29 - October 2, 2022

Jasleen Dhillon - Vice President of Marketing and Communications

- Dhillon has been working hard promoting Dons elections via instagram and working closely with senators with outreach to their constituency.
- The ASUSF Marketing and Communications committee collaborated with the ASUSF Advocacy committee to go over a few resolutions and share some updates.
- Senator Quan is working on a google form for her constituency.
- Senator Lopez is preparing a resolution to present to the Advocacy Committee. He is also working closely with his fellow senators brainstorming resolution ideas.
- Senator Glancy is working closely with the VP of Marketing and Communications to form a subcommittee on the Marketing and Communications committee.

Ariana Anayat - Vice President of Internal Affairs

- VPIA Anayat represented ASUSF Senate as a guest speaker on this year's first episode of the Fogpod podcast, run by the USF Foghorn, released September 30.
- VPIA Anayat has been performing outreach across campus to compile a comprehensive panel for the upcoming ASUSF Fall Town Hall.
- VPIA Anayat is also supporting a multitude of Senators in producing new resolutions
- The Internal Affairs Committee voted to approve Apurva Aluru as School of Management Representative and Symone Booker as Gender & Sexual Diversity Representative
- Senator Sofia del Rosario was appointed Marketing & Professional Development Chair.
- Senator Gorozhankin is reaching out to student organizations across campus in an attempt to establish additional partnerships for his NightCaps initiative: he has already established a partnership with It's On Us. Dmitry is also working on a resolution for Title IX training for students.
- Senator Del Puerto created a survey that was sent to the Junior Class cohort to gather preemptive feedback for the Junior Weekend event he is in the process of planning.
- In conjunction with other Senators, Senator DEL Puerto was part of the team to have the resolution on Food Pantry support be approved by the Advocacy Committee.
- Senator Wang is in the process of collecting clothes and working out details for her clothing swap event this semester.
- In conjunction with other Senators, Senator Wang was part of the team to have the resolution on Food Pantry support be approved by the Advocacy Committee.
- Additionally, Senator Wang has begun work on an attendance policy resolution.

Ethan Lee-Bellows - President

- President Lee-Bellows provided student nominations for various committees to Provost Chinyere

- Senator Rosario is working on her resolution for providing feminine products in women's restrooms, and will be sending it to the Vice President of Advocacy, Fiza, by Monday.
- Senator Yniguez is reaching out to the enrollment/admissions office to discuss increasing accessibility for financial aid awards.
- Senator Johal is continuing work on her Attendance Resolution to Advocacy Committee within the next couple weeks.

Fiza Shaikh - Vice President of Advocacy

- VPA Shaikh is working on finding more members to join the Advocacy Committee. She has emailed organizations that have to do with sustainability in order to do so, trying to draft ideas and looking at what the previous VPA last year did for the sustainability aspect of advocacy.
- Shaikh is reviewing resolutions and is working on writing her own as well.
- Shaikh is also overlooking resolution ideas members from the Advocacy Committee may have in mind.
- Shaikh will be meeting with the ASUSF graduate intern, Martina to catch her up on the Advocacy Committee and introduce the process of resolutions more this week.
- VPA Shaikh will also be meeting with Richard Hsu on October 12 along with Marci.
- The Advocacy Committee collaborated with the Marketing Committee. We went over two resolutions: Kirpan Resolution and Food Pantry Resolution.
- Senator Smagulova is working on distributing the form through the international student organizations
- VPA Shaikh connected Senator Smagulova with Martina so that they can work together on Senator Smagulova's resolution for more opportunities for international students on campus.
- Senator Smagulova also had a meeting with Marcella this last week.

Nadine Tabucao - Vice President of Finance

- VPF Tabucao attended CSO Roundtables and initiated a discussion regarding the Student Activity Fee
- The ASUSF Finance Committee partially awarded the International Student Association in Event Funding for Culturescape.
- The ASUSF Finance Committee fully awarded Queer Safety and Education in Nursing in Event Funding for their Trans Healthcare 101 workshop.
- The ASUSF Finance Committee fully awarded Dons Esports in Internal Development Funding.
- The ASUSF Finance Committee partially awarded Latinas Unidas in Internal Development Funding.
- Senator Teruya is finalizing a Public Safety resolution to send to the ASUSF Advocacy Committee for review.