

Week 1: January 30, 2023 - February 2, 2023

Fiza Shaikh - Vice President of Advocacy

- Shaikh is working on formulating Advocacy Committee and getting back into the groove of work. She is going to work on the GIFT fund and look over resolutions that will be presented next week.
- In Advocacy Committee she went over the overview and goals of the committee and Senate in general this week.
- Shaikh will be meeting with pairs next week!

Ethan Lee-Bellows - President

- President Lee-Bellows met with Senator Quan to discuss their resolution of designating a testing facility space on campus.
- President Lee-Bellows met with Senator Mak to discuss their resolution regarding increased transparency from university administration towards green investment, and their resolution regarding implementing automatic voter registration.
- President Lee-Bellows met with the Graduate Student Senate to discuss possible support for the Mascot Change Initiative.
- President Lee-Bellows conducted the final CSO Roundtable meeting of the semester.
- Senator Rosario is working on updating her pre-health exam fund graphic to be accessible for Instagram, and conducting research on two resolution ideas.
- Senator Yniguez is preparing his plans & ideas for the semester.
- Senator Johal is preparing for her meeting regarding senior week.

Ariana Anayat - Vice President of Internal Affairs

- VPIA Anayat has been in conversation with different administrators to schedule guest speakers for every General Senate meeting and has booked guest speakers for the next couple months
- VPIA Anayat has also been in the process of receiving and reviewing applications for VP of Marketing & Communications, Senator positions, and committee membership.
- The ASUSF Internal Affairs Committee interviewed candidates for VP of Marketing & Communications to provide a recommendation for the ASUSF Executive Team.
- Senator Gorozhankin will be working closely with the Title IX department as the department is currently going through an external review process.
- Senator del Puerto is planning another event for the Junior Class and is continuing to explore ways to revamp the Student Hub.
- Senator Wang will be leaving her position to become the new ASUSF VP of Marketing & Communications!

Nadine Tabucao - Vice President of Finance

- VPF Tabucao approved Marketing Club's Event Funding Request for Product Marketing Workshop with Beth Bourg
- VPF Tabucao submitted changes to the ASUSF Funding websites to clarify how ASUSF Funding works
- VPF Tabucao reached out to USFtv to work together to create an informative video about the Student Activity Fee in preparation for the Special Elections
- The ASUSF Finance Committee partially approved Hawaiian Ensemble's Event Funding budget appeal for their Annual Ho'ike.
- The ASUSF Finance Committee approved CAB's budget appeal for their CAB Branded Giveaway Items.
- The ASUSF Finance Committee partially approved Alpha Kappa Alpha's Travel Funding Request for their 94th Far Western Regional Conference.
- Senator Mak had a PACT Appointment with President Lee-Bellows to discuss two resolutions: Increasing Transparency and Accountability regarding Green Investment and Implementing Automatic Voter Registration in the University of San Francisco
- Senator Teruya met with Facilities Management to learn more about the closure of Presentation Theatre and discuss a resolution to fix the sound system in the McLaren conference rooms