

Week 3: February 13, 2023 - February 17, 2023

Ethan Lee-Bellows - President

- President Lee-Bellows met with Julie Orio to discuss resolutions currently in the works and follow-up with regards to the Mascot Resolution.
- President Lee-Bellows met with Senator Quan to discuss how to move forward with her resolution.
- Senator Rosario is working on updating her pre-health exam fund graphic to be accessible for Instagram, and conducting research on two resolution ideas.
- Senator Yniguez is beginning to conduct outreach to LatinasUnidas to discuss how he can best represent their wants and needs this semester.
- Senator Johal is continuing her work regarding senior week.

Zoe Wang - Vice President of Marketing & Communications

- VPMC Wang has posted several times on the ASUSF official Instagram account.
- VPMC Wang has a tiktok campaign planned to promote the Student Activity Fee.
- Marketing Committee edited and finalized the ASUSF Official Newsletter.
- Members of the Marketing Committee have shown their dedication through the taking on of projects such as promotion of the Student Activity Fee.
- Committee member Ammons is designing a poster to be placed in residence halls regarding the Student Activity Fee.
- Senator Quan is finalizing her SDS Exam Proctoring Resolution
- Senator Quan is being proactive in formation of new resolution ideas.
- Senator Quan has been reaching out to various constituencies in order to better understand student body needs.
- Senator Lopez is collaborating with Senator del Puerto in establishing/brainstorming a campus organization webpage.
- Senator Lopez is collaborating with Senator Mak regarding the Public Posting Board Resolution.

Fiza Shaikh - Vice President of Advocacy

- VPA Shaikh is working on editing resolutions.
- Advocacy committee workshopped all pending resolutions in committee this past week.
- Senator Smugalova is in contact with Nam from ISA to see what international students need. She is also working on her resolution for more employment opportunities for international students.
- Senator Karani is working on her toilet seat cover resolution. She also wants to work on creating a green space on the UC3 patio and also wants to figure out a way of making a flexi transferral system. She is also working on her part of the newsletter.

- Senator Phan is working on writing a memo with Dmitry on the attendance policy. She is also going to schedule a meeting with Joshua Rivedal who wants to host an event on mental health with CAB next academic year. She also wants to begin a resolution that ensures demo materials being restocked in the nursing skills lab. She also wants to work on a resolution where all club information is updated. She is also working on her clinical transportation resolution and wants to work with Sofia and Ryan on the exam fund resolution as well.

Ariana Anayat - Vice President of Internal Affairs

- VPIA Anayat was out of office due to sickness
- The ASUSF Internal Affairs Committee interviewed candidates for Gender & Sexual Diversity Representative.
- Senator Gorozhankin is working with the Title IX department to create programming for Sexual Assault Awareness Month.
- Senator Del Puerto is working on planning a Junior Class event.

Nadine Tabucao - Vice President of Finance

- VPF Tabucao met with ASUSF Voices regarding budget appeals and next year's budget
- VPF Tabucao tabled to increase student voter engagement for the Student Activity Fee Special Elections that will be held during the week of February 27 to March 3.
- The ASUSF Finance Committee approved Hui O' Hawai'i's Event Funding budget appeal for their Annual Lu'au.
- Senator Mak is continuing to make changes to his Automatic Voter Registration Resolution after receiving feedback from Angeline Vuong, the Assistant Director of Public Service Programs. He presented his senator report during the General Senate meeting on February 15.
- Senator Teruya is continuing to make changes to her McLaren and Presentation Theatre Resolution. She presented her senator report during the General Senate meeting on February 15.