

Part-Time and Temporary Work Options

The following resources are just a few of many options available to help you earn money in-between full-time jobs or if you need some extra cash. Part-time or temporary work can also be beneficial for experiential learning and skill-building.

We do not necessarily endorse the organizations below but offer them as ideas and resources for your search. As with all job opportunities, please use your own judgment when choosing to work for any of the employers or agencies below.

Handshake: Our online platform has hundreds of part-time jobs in a variety of sectors and industries. If you have trouble accessing or navigating the site, please contact our office.

WayUp: A dedicated site for current students and new graduates, WayUp features several entry-level, part-time jobs. They also have multiple remote jobs that may be a better fit with your school schedule.

Localwise: This site a local job community that aims to connect people to jobs at local businesses.

One Less Thing: Find hourly jobs that work with your ever-changing school schedule.

Snagajob: As the number one hourly marketplace, Snagajob makes it easy for students to find hourly positions through a user-friendly website.

Remote.Co: Find part-time, remote work opportunities in various specializations

Parker Dewey: Get real world experience by completing projects that build your skill and grow your network.

Survey/Focus Groups: Share your thoughts and opinions for rewards and incentives.

Curion: <https://curioninsights.com>

Swagbucks: <https://www.swagbucks.com>

SurveyJunkie: <https://www.surveyjunkie.com/>

UserTesting: <https://www.usertesting.com>

Casting and Extra Work:

<https://www.hayescasting.com/>

<http://www.beaubonneaucasting.com/>

Not sure where to begin? The Career Services Center offers services for questions about applications, resume/cover-letter writing, interviewing and much more. Contact us by visiting Handshake, calling our office at 415-422-6216, or stopping by our front desk at UC 5th floor.