Applicants will be contacted at their USF email address.

Criteria: Students will be selected for a one-year scholarship based on the following:

- Completion of one year of J.D. study at USF School of Law by the end of Spring 2025, and enrollment at the School of Law during 2025-26. Note: Dual degree students must apply during the Spring of JD enrollment year; award will be deferred if enrollment in the subsequent year is primarily in a non-law program.
- Demonstrated academic potential, i.e. the student is in good standing upon conclusion of Spring 2025.
- Confirmed financial need for 2025-26 by the law school's financial aid process. See Instruction #3 below.
- Demonstrated detail of individual, active involvement in Maritime Law.

Please Note:

- Recipients of University funding, (i.e., scholarships, grants, stipends, tuition remission, etc.) will not be granted institutional funding in excess of tuition.

Award: One $2,000 award for a continuing student with a demonstrated interest in maritime law.

- Award is applied in equal amounts (one-half) to the student's tuition charges in the Fall and Spring semesters.
- Recipients must be enrolled in law school for both semesters to receive the full award amount.

Instructions: Along with this completed form, applicants must submit the following:

- A brief statement, no more than two pages (double-spaced), which addresses the following:
 - Your demonstrated interest in maritime law.
 - Your plans upon completion of your law degree.
- Current resume.
- Submit your official FAFSA form for 2025-26 to the Federal Processor by the scholarship deadline.
Please Note: If you are ineligible for FAFSA, the School of Law Financial Aid Office will provide an alternative means of satisfying the financial need requirement.

Submit this completed form, your scholarship statement and resume as attachments via your USF email address only. Send all documents in a single email to lawstudentaffairs@usfca.edu. Questions should be directed to Hailey Smart, Student Affairs Program Assistant, at hsmart2@usfca.edu.
