Course:
Litigating Workers' Rights in the Gig Economy

Professor:
Shounak Dharap/Julie Erickson

Course Materials:
Please see the Book List, published on the Registrar’s page.

First Assignment:
Unless otherwise specified, all reading assignments for this course include cases, statutes, and secondary sources that can be accessed through Westlaw. To navigate to the appropriate secondary sources, you may copy the name of the guide and cited chapter into the Westlaw search bar. For example, to navigate to the first reading assignment, enter “Cal. Prac. Guide Employment Litigation Ch. 19-H” into the search bar and then scroll to the relevant sections. While the reading seems voluminous at first glance, the cited sections are relatively short. Feel free to expand on the reading by exploring the cases cited by the secondary sources.

Reading: Class Actions, Federal and California
- FRCP 23
- Code Civ. Proc., § 382
- Rule of Court 3760-3771
Reading: Class Action vs. PAGA Representative Action

Reading: Arbitration
- General Considerations, Cal. Prac. Guide Alt. Disp. Res. Ch. 5-A, §§ 6-6.1, 8.7a-8.8c, 8.11

Reading: Employees v. Independent Contractors
- Coverage and Exemptions—In General, Cal. Prac. Guide Employment Litigation Ch. 11-B, §§ 115-119.1
- Lab. Code § 2750.3 (AB 5)
- Dynamex Operations W. v. Superior Court (2018) 4 Cal. 5th 903
- Bus. Prof. Code §§ 7448-7467 (Prop 22)