Required Text/Reading

Please read the chapter on Reading Cases and Writing Case Briefs and the case, Lopez v. Winchell’s Donut House, in your orientation materials before your first class on Tuesday, August 14.

For your information, you will be using the following books in this course:

1. Linda H. Edwards, Legal Writing & Analysis
2. The Bluebook, A Uniform System of Citation (20th ed. 2015). You must purchase the hard copy of the twentieth edition.
3. One year subscription of Core Grammar for Lawyers. Please see the information provided by the Office of Admissions which gives you the Summer Instructions for Core Grammar and allows you to get started on this exercise during the summer. You will be given the instructions again in class regarding the purchase and exercise.

I will provide more information for you about these books during our first week of classes.

1st Assignment

1. Please draft a case brief for Lopez v. Winchell’s Donut House for our first class on Tuesday, August 14.

2. It is strongly recommended that you start Core Grammar and do the Pre-Test which must be done by Monday, August 20 by 8 pm. Otherwise, you will have to reserve time during the first week of school to do it before the deadline.

Brief Notes to Students

I look forward to meeting all of you.
