Spanish Language Program for Jesuit Institutions Faculty and Staff - Summer 2020

SPANISH LANGUAGE PROGRAM AT IBERO PUEBLA

With the intention of strengthening ties between Jesuit institutions, the IBERO Puebla, through its International Academic Affairs office, offers non-tuition Spanish Language Program for faculty and staff from Jesuit colleges & universities. During the two-week program, participants will take Spanish classes from 9 am to 1 pm with the possibility to offer seminar/workshop or explore collaboration with peers in the afternoons.

About IBERO Puebla

IBERO Puebla is one of the universities in Mexico with the greatest tradition and with experience in welcoming international groups. Due to our Jesuit identity, we strive to educate highly capable individuals with a deep human sensitivity, who will aid in the construction of a fairer more humanly sympathetic society.

About Puebla

Puebla is among the most historic cities in Mexico as well as the Gateway to the nearby mountains, and beautiful Pacific, Gulf and Caribbean beaches. It has been recognized by UNESCO as a World Heritage site. The valley where Puebla is located ranks among the most important cultural areas of ancient civilizations. Arts and drafts, including famous and beautiful handmade tiles and pottery, churches and convents, markets and plazas all contribute to make this one of the most culturally creative centers on the continent.

Testimonials

"I had a terrific time, everybody here is very hospitable and friendly, the professors are very patient. The host family was very generous, warm, and very friendly. I learned a lot of Spanish, it was great to be in a new place like Puebla and learn about their history and culture."

Mark Berlin PH.D. - Assistant Professor Political Science Marquette University - 2017

"This program is a fantastic opportunity for immersion in Spanish language and the culture of Mexico in general and Puebla in particular—all in the generous expert hands of the faculty and staff of Ibero!"

Sherri Brown PH.D. - Associate Professor Department of Theology Creighton University - 2018
