

ASUSF February Executive Report

Kiannah-Nicole Karani, ASUSF President

Senator Pairs:

- The Senior class Representative is discussing progress on a potential resolution with relevant administration and is continuing efforts to acquire contraceptives on campus.
- The International Student Representative is planning on beginning a new initiative this semester.
- The Title IX Representative is preparing for events during Sexual Assault Awareness Month.

Executive Updates:

- President Karani has continued conversations with administration regarding space allocation for resource centers and the Public Safety Advisory Board to receive updates on their progress.

Metzli Lemus, ASUSF Vice President of Internal Affairs

Senator Pairs:

- The Junior Class Representative is assisting in collaborations with the Athletics department during basketball season.
- The College of Arts and Sciences Representative is continuing their work with the Dean of CAS and connecting with professors to identify areas for stronger ties between administration and students regarding undergraduate and graduate pathways.
- The Latine Student Representative is continuing their work to create a concrete plan for the LRC and is continuing to meet with constituents regularly.
- The Student of Color Representative has begun writing a resolution in support of undocumented students and will be meeting with campus partners.

Committee Updates:

- The Internal Affairs Committee has reviewed the constitution, bylaws, and interviewed a candidate for ASUSF Senate.

Aderet Parrino, ASUSF Vice President of Advocacy

Senator Pairs:

- The Students with Disabilities Representative is working on communication with the library regarding their budgets for the upcoming year. They are also working to increase student engagement with the library.
- The Pre-Health Student Representative is focused on finalizing the Menstrual equity resolution and has been working on Earth Week events.
- The Black Student Representative is continuing conversations regarding the BRC with relevant members of administration. They are also working on planning an event for their constituents this semester.

Committee Updates:

- The Advocacy Committee has approved a GIFT Fund application project and has been meeting with a member of Bon Appetit to discuss the current processes of the company on campus.

Mar Ruiz, ASUSF Vice President of Marketing and Communications

Senator Pairs:

- The First Generation Student Representative has officially secured 300 stoles for First Generation graduates this semester. They are also working on a pamphlet specifically for their constituents.
- The Sophomore Class Representative is developing new ideas for events this semester.
- The Transfer Student Representative is currently working on continuing their work from last semester.

Committee Updates:

- The M&C committee has been creating social media posts and advertisements in collaboration with on campus partners to increase engagement with ASUSF Senate.

Nadine Tabucao, ASUSF Vice President of Finance

Senator Pairs:

- The School of Management Representative has met with Associate Dean Shukla to discuss budget options for their initiatives.
- The UBAC Representatives are preparing for their budget event with Senate later in this semester.

Committee Updates:

- The Finance Committee has been preparing for Budget weekend and will continue to connect with organizations leading up to Budget weekend.