

ASUSF March Executive Report

Kiannah-Nicole Karani, ASUSF President

Senator Pairs:

- The Senior class Representative is continuing progress on their resolution with relevant administration and is beginning plans for Senior class activities.
- The Title IX Representative is preparing for events during Sexual Assault Awareness Month including Denim Day.

Executive Updates:

- President Karani has continued conversations with administration regarding space allocation for resource centers and the Public Safety Advisory Board to receive updates on their progress.

Metzli Lemus, ASUSF Vice President of Internal Affairs

Senator Pairs:

- The Junior Class Representative is continuing collaborations with the Athletics department during basketball season. They have also participated in the Day of the Dons class competition.
- The College of Arts and Sciences Representative is continuing their work with the Dean of CAS and connecting with professors to identify areas for stronger ties between administration and students regarding undergraduate and graduate pathways.
- The Latine Student Representative is continuing their work to create a concrete plan for the LRC and is continuing to meet with constituents regularly. They are also collaborating with the Black Student Representative to plan the Black and Brown Get Down event later in the semester.
- The Student of Color Representative is continuing to write a resolution in support of undocumented students and will be presenting the document soon.

Committee Updates:

- The Internal Affairs Committee has reviewed the constitution, bylaws, and interviewed a candidate for ASUSF Senate.

Aderet Parrino, ASUSF Vice President of Advocacy

Senator Pairs:

- The Accessibility Representative is working on communication with the library regarding their budgets for the upcoming year.
- The Pre-Health Student Representative has completed the Menstrual equity resolution and will be spearheading Market Day and Earth Week planning.
- The Black Student Representative is continuing conversations regarding the BRC with relevant members of administration. They are also working with the Latine student representative to plan the Black and Brown Get Down.

Committee Updates:

- The Advocacy Committee has approved a GIFT Fund application project and has been meeting with a member of Bon Appetit to discuss the current processes of the company on campus.

Mar Ruiz, ASUSF Vice President of Marketing and Communications

Senator Pairs:

- The First Generation Student Representative has officially secured 300 stoles for First Generation graduates this semester.
- The Transfer Student Representative is currently working on their resolution and will be continuing to meet with relevant members of administration.

Committee Updates:

- The M&C committee has been creating social media posts and advertisements in collaboration with on campus partners to increase engagement with ASUSF Senate. They are also moving into elections preparation to promote this upcoming general election.

Nadine Tabucao, ASUSF Vice President of Finance

Senator Pairs:

- The School of Management Representative is continuing their efforts to secure funding for constituents. They are also continuing efforts from earlier this semester.
- The UBAC Representatives are preparing for their budget event at Spring Town Hall.

Committee Updates:

- The Finance Committee has completed Budget weekend and will continue to connect with organizations regarding the appeal process.