

Dear Nathan,

2022 was an incredible year. As a community, we celebrated many milestones, most notably continuing to share in the delight of in-person learning. Accompanying young people in the creation of a hope-filled future is one of our most important callings as a Jesuit university. Launching USF students into the world, prepared with a Jesuit education to address the pressing social justice challenges of our time, is one of our most hopeful acts.

As we look to the future, it can be easy to feel overwhelmed by the challenges and uncertainties that lie ahead. But in the face of adversity, it's important to remember that hope is a powerful force.

Will you join me in making a year-end gift to provide a hope-filled future to our USF students in 2023 and beyond?

The sense of community at USF is found in its legacy of Jesuit values that are manifested in the DNA of its education. This year was a powerful reminder of the resilience and strength of our students. At USF, we believe that a brighter future is possible. Our faculty, librarians, and staff are working tirelessly to provide our students academic support, mental health support, financial aid, and basic needs, including food insecurity. We are committed to creating a future filled with hope and opportunity for all.

Your support is crucial to the success of our mission. USF aspires to be the leading Jesuit university for diversity, inclusiveness, academic excellence, and innovation distinguished by our experiential and civically-engaged education and our contributions to social and environmental justice.

With your help, we can continue to make a real difference in the world for students who seek to change the world. Make your gift today!

Together, we can create a bright future filled with hope, for generations to come.

Thank you for your generosity and support.

Happy holidays and warmest wishes,

Chinyere Oparah
Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs

P.S. Join me and make your year-end gift before Dec. 31 to ensure all our students are prepared to succeed in 2023 and beyond. Gifts of all sizes make a difference.
