HOW STUDY ABROAD EXPERIENCES RELATE TO FUTURE CAREERS

TRANSFERABLE SKILLS: It’s important to translate your study abroad experience into these skills that you take with you no matter where you go or where you work.

- Examples of transferable skills include:
  - Flexibility
  - Adaptability
  - Initiative/Self Starter
  - Problem Solver/Troubleshooter
  - Curiosity about the world and other cultures
  - Language skills
  - Thinks on feet
  - Willingness to try new things–innovative

- Highlight your study abroad experience on your résumé in the EDUCATION section; Include Name of institution, What your studies were, City and Country of experience, Time you were there (eg. 01/06 – 05/06).

- Be prepared to discuss your experience in an Interview, specifically what you learned about yourself during that time.

- Come to the Career Services Center to have a career counselor review your résumé and help you with your cover letter and interviewing skills!
